CONFERENCE PARTICIPANTS

Emmanuel & Alice Adomako

Emmanuel & Alice are in Lancaster finishing their degrees at LBC (Emmanuel a Masters in Biblical Counseling, and Alice a Bachelors in Nursing). However before the Lord led them to CMBC, they had initiated the ministry they call Love in Christ, Int'l, founded in 2012. Since then they have ministered to some 5,000 people in rural Ghana through crusades, conferences, & medical outreaches. They are planning to return to their native country of Ghana in June 2019. They will resume their ministry in Biblical & leadership training for rural pastors & evangelists, medical outreach, and rural kids' education. They desire to impact Africa with Christ's love.

Doug & Elaine

Doug was saved at age 12 and Elaine at age 5. After completing college, both worked in the business world before Doug entered Seminary. Doug was 10 years in pastoral ministry before entering missions in 1991. The family (including children, Kara and Sheldon) served two terms in Australia. Since 2001 Doug has been involved in assisting national churches in sending their own missionaries to reach their own people, or into nearby countries. Elaine has served as a faithful partner each step of the way.

Mindy Boyd

The Lord called Mindy into missions after a trip to the Philippines at age 15. She attended Columbia International University in SC where she majored in Intercultural Studies and Bible Teaching. During that time her desire to reach the lost and plant churches only deepened. After college, she returned to PA and became more involved in the local music scene, playing regularly in coffeehouses and churches and leading worship for various events around the world. The Lord also used this time to prepare her for future ministry. In 2007 He called her to work with Craig & Debbie Borgard in Schkeuditz, Germany, where she ministered for 7½ years. Since September 2016, she has had the privilege of working alongside Jeff & Anne Ingram to plant a church among atheists in Dresden, Germany.

Larry Ferguson

Larry serves with Tomorrow Clubs, an offshoot of missions started here at CMBC. Tomorrow Clubs partner with the local churches in 10 Eastern European countries to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ and long term discipleship to children in underserved communities through weekly Bible clubs.

CONFERENCE PARTICIPANTS

Lisa Fish

Lisa grew up at CMBC, and it was during a Missions Conference here that the Lord called her as a missionary. She has served as a teacher and youth leader in Bolivia (1990-2002), Uganda (2003-2014), and Texas (2016-2017). She is returning to Uganda in August of 2018 to teach at Heritage Int'l School and to continue developing youth ministries in the Africa Gospel Church. These ministries have grown and are impacting Uganda and the world for Christ.

Jeff & Anne Ingram

Anne was raised in a missions-minded pastor's family whose influence led her to commit her life to serving Christ abroad. Jeff sensed God's call to missionary service during college. Anne & Jeff met and married while studying Bible at Columbia Int. University in SC. Jeff served as asst. pastor here under Bob Reid from 1988-1991. CMBC commissioned them to serve in Poland, then in Germany where they have been planting churches since 1999. The Ingrams have been in Dresden for 4 years and started the Ev. Free Church Dresden-South in April 2016. The former East Germany is one of the most atheistic regions in the world.

Jim & Amber Glasscock

The Glasscock Family, going to Uganda with International Training and Equipping Ministries (ITEM) to train and equip national pastors. As pastor for 20+ years, Jim is passionate about expository preaching and teaching others how to study God's word. In the past few years, Jim has traveled several times to Uganda to train pastors to reach their own people for Christ. Now he plans to continue this ministry full time in Africa.

Bud & Barb Speck

Bud and Barbara have served with Wycliffe Bible Translators since 1981. Bud currently is working on a global team as a Communications Liaison for the Wycliffe Global Alliance in Europe. There are 19 Wycliffe organizations in Europe that are engaging with churches and individuals to send out laborers in the harvest field for Bible Translation. Bud seeks to encourage, equip and facilitate these organizations to effectively communicate the Bible translation need. The need worldwide is still very great. Current estimates suggest around 160 million people speaking almost 1,800 languages still have a need for the Word of God in their own heart language. Barbara serves in an intercessory prayer ministry where she has extended times of private worship and prayer for Wycliffe Bible Translators, churches, missionaries and many others.

Jason & Barb Henry

Jason and Barb are members of CMBC (Barb grew up in Lancaster). They were individually sent to Mongolia as missionaries and met there in 1995. They and 3 of their 4 children will be returning to Mongolia soon (Hadassah will remain at Millersville University), where they have been ministering for 23 years. They are church-planters in a rural town, and operate a farming business as a platform for ministry.

Sean & Daphne
Stewart

Sean is CEO of Children's Bible Fellowship of New York. CBF is a discipleship ministry to the inner city youth of New York City and to individuals of all ages who have a disability or special need. They operate 2 summer camps (Camp Hope and Camp Joy) and engage in ministry year round in the NYC metro area.

Mark &
Estella
Trostle

Mark grew up at CMBC, and also served an internship here. Mark & Estella Trostle served with the Papua New Guinea Bible Translation Association (BTA). BTA is the local Papua New Guinean Wycliffe organization, working to bring God's Word to their own people. The Trostles have served BTA through Church Engagement, helping churches partner with BTA to accomplish the enormous task of reaching the 300 people groups still without one verse of Scripture in their language. In 2014 they started and now administer a Staff Care program in BTA to assist their PNG co-workers, addressing various aspects of well-being including spiritual, emotional, relational, physical and economic matters.

Then He said to His disciples,
"The harvest is plentiful,
but the laborers are few;
therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest." Matthew 9:37-38 (ESV)
